

Joint Committee for the Administration of the 15th Collective Agreement

Memorandum of Agreement

June 28, 2022

Multiple Positions in One Advertisement

Without prejudice or precedent, the Parties agree to the following:

- a) Notwithstanding Article 10.53 (b), multiple positions in one Academic Unit may be advertised in one advertisement at the discretion of the Selection Committee.
- b) The advertisement shall contain a preamble which contains information that is pertinent to all positions. Information required by Article 10.52 shall be contained in the preamble.
- c) Each position shall have its own paragraph and be uniquely identified with a position number and the details of the position.
- d) Applicants shall be asked to indicate to which position they are applying.
- e) Each position shall be treated separately for the purposes of the remainder of Article 10 (i.e. each position shall have its own shortlist, shall have the required number of interviewees as per Article 10.53 (c), shall be ranked separately, shall have separate Academic Unit votes, and shall have separate recommendation letters to the Dean, Vice-President (Academic) and Board).
