The Acadia University Club founded in 1969 is an autonomous organization incorporated under the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia. The Club is located on Westwood Avenue (behind Huggins Science Hall). Membership is open to all faculty, staff and alumni of Acadia University.

The purpose of the Club is to promote and encourage friendship and recreation among its members from the Acadia University community. Members are urged to visit the Club and its facilities. In addition, a varied programme of events and activities is arranged during the year. The facilities of the Club are available to members for meetings and receptions. Requests for the use of the Club for such purposes should be addressed to the Club Manager, 542-9543.
